VISION of glory
In ancient story,
Lives there a legend
So simple, so grand ;
Heaven's pearly gates unbarred,
Forth sweeps an angel guard
Pausing, where lowly men
Wondering stand.

Mission celestial
Sent to terrestrial
Beings, why rest not
 Where kings may adore !
No royal state is here—
No marshalled hosts appear—
Only the shepherds near
 Jordan's famed shore.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The text also mentions that proper record-keeping is a key requirement for compliance with various accounting standards and regulations.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the role of the auditor in verifying the accuracy of the financial statements. It describes the various procedures that auditors use to test the underlying transactions and balances, and how they report their findings to the board of directors and other stakeholders. The text also highlights the importance of the auditor's independence and objectivity in performing their duties.

3. The third part of the document discusses the impact of the financial statements on the company's performance and reputation. It explains how the financial statements provide valuable information to investors, creditors, and other interested parties, and how they can be used to assess the company's financial health and growth prospects. The text also mentions that the financial statements can be used to identify areas for improvement and to develop strategies to enhance the company's performance.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the role of the board of directors in overseeing the financial reporting process. It describes the various responsibilities of the board, including reviewing the financial statements, approving the audit fees, and ensuring that the company's financial reporting practices are consistent with applicable laws and regulations. The text also mentions that the board of directors is responsible for ensuring that the company's financial reporting process is transparent and accountable.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of the financial reporting process in building trust and confidence in the company. It explains that the financial statements provide a clear and concise summary of the company's financial performance, and that this information is essential for investors and other stakeholders to make informed decisions. The text also mentions that the financial reporting process is a key component of the company's corporate governance framework, and that it helps to ensure that the company is operating in a transparent and ethical manner.

Now through the midnight air
Rings a tone sweet and clear,
“ This day to you is born
Saviour and King ”
Scarce housed in Bethlehem,
Uncrowned with gold or gem,
Fear not your tribute
Of worship to bring.

Cherub and Seraphim
Swell the grand choral hymn,
“Glory to God on High,
Peace to earth given.”
Upward they float again,
Wafting the triumph strain,
Nought left to man, save
The star-studded heaven.

Then no delaying,
Only obeying ;
“ Onward to Bethlehem,”
 They said, “ Let us go,
There seek the manger
That shelters the stranger,
Loftier than infant
 That palaces know.”

Now they have found Him,
Kneeling around Him,
Blessed babe—blessed mother—
Their Lord they adore,
So in our hearts may we
Such welcome render Thee,
Jesus Emmanuel,
King Evermore.
